

1. Abed Nadir | Founder of Pillowtown

Abed Nadir is the founder and commander of the fort Pillowtown, seeking to build the highest quality pillow fort on campus. Abed developed the original idea for the fort and recruited Troy to help build it. As the founder, Abed has absolute authority over battle plans and fort construction for Pillowtown, though he prefers to rule by consensus where possible. With his vast knowledge, Abed can anticipate most strategic moves and has planned elaborate defense protocols to protect Pillowtown. However, his rigidity and lack of understanding of human emotions sometimes work against him.

2. Troy Barnes | Founder of Blanketsburg

Troy Barnes, Abed Nadir's rival, is the founder and general of the fort Blanketsburg. Abed initially recruited him to help build the pillow fort, but after a conflict, they split up to create vast forts. He oversees the expansion and military capabilities of their fort, along with working towards the world record of the largest fort. Though not as knowledgeable as Troy, his leadership and charisma allow him to make alliances easily. He can also lash out, blinded by his goal of winning the world record also prioritizing quantity over quality. On the contrary, his strength and intellect allow him to command various troops into battle.

3. Jeff Winger | Strategic Negotiator

Jeff Winger takes on the role of a strategic negotiator, using his charm, leadership, and knowledge to control and show his views on the conflicts between Pillowtown and Blanketsburg. His leadership and skills within a group led him to become a central figure in the conflict between both forts, showing his expertise in resolving conflicts and finding common ground. As the negotiator, his power to converse and mediate Pillowtown and Blanketsburg conflicts made him an important ally. His communication, resolution skills, and mediation are unmatched by others, which can benefit both factions, but can also be used for darker purposes.

4. Annie Edison | Nurse

Annie Edison is the neutral nurse, caring for injured soldiers from both forts. Annie is a long time friend of both Troy and Abed, finding herself troubled and conflicted with the war between these two factors and doing anything to create a mutual solution. She has the power to offer assistance to anyone hurt or harmed during the war between two factions. She maintains neutrality, although a plan relating to a mutual agreement might sway her choices. She creates a sense of peace and humanity with others surrounding her along with healing and mediating minor or major issues.

5. Shirley Bennett | Mediator/Peacekeeper

Shirley Bennet's role as a peacekeeper and mediator, attempting to resolve the conflict between Pillowtown and Blanketsburg, is vital to the ongoing war. She plays an important role in limiting the fort tensions and creating harmony and peace. Her influence is substantial, although it is confined to her abilities in peacekeeping and mediation. Lastly, can use her position as a public speaker to rapidly spread new information to create new action.

6. Pierce Hawthorne | Chaos Agent

Pierce Hawthorne assumes the role of a double sided agent, quietly changing the flow of events between Pillowtown and Blanketsburg with his erratic and unusual techniques. Pierce, who is well known for his questionable and frequently troublesome behavior, adds an aspect to the conflict by acting as a wild card. Pierce, the cunning influencer, can use unusual strategies to quietly affect relationships and events between Blanketsburg and Pillowtown. His skills include being unpredictable, having unexpected changes when desired, and being able to instigate conflict into the battle, creating an everlasting fire between the two sides for pure entertainment.

7. Britta Perry | War Journalist

Britta Perry has the role of a war documentarian, recording the Pillowtown vs. Blanketsburg fight as it develops. Another acquaintance of Troy and Abed, Britta, uses documentary filmmaking to record the war and its effects on relationships. Britta can represent and analyze the events of the war as the war documentarian. Her skills include using cinema to tell stories, offering insight into the effects of the war, and swaying public opinion. With an emphasis on recording and interpreting events, Britta's abilities also extend to the media's influence and action in this war.

8. Leonard Rodriguez (Briggs) | Battalion Leader

Leonard Rodriguez uses his experience in combat to rally a group of supporters for the Briggs Battalion, a faction that is either based in Pillowtown or Blanketsburg. Leonard, who is well known in the study group for his distinct commander and leaderlike personality and military experience, steps forward to take the lead in the war between factions, creating a conflict strategy. He is capable of applying disciplined methods to fort defense and construction, as well as strategic thinking and leadership.

9. Ben Chang | Unpredictable Ally

Ben Chang turns into an unpredictable ally, siding with Blanketsburg or Pillowtown according to his desires and intentions. Chang, who is well known for his unpredictable conduct and shifting allegiances, enters the battle as a wild card and teams up with Pierce Hawthorne, although their partnership isn't set in stone. Chang can choose to support either team, adding excitement and unpredictability to the battle. His skills include being unpredictable, switching allegiances, and creating mayhem.

10. Garret Lambert | Blanket Defender

Garrett Lambert uses his understanding of fort construction and defense to further the objectives of the upgraded fort as well as Blanketsburg's fortifications. Garrett, who has a reputation for being unpredictable and uptight, is crucial to creating and carrying out Blanketsburg's strategy and eliminating Pillowtown. Among his skills are strategic thinking, fort planning, and maximizing Blanketsburg's overall effectiveness against attacks and sieges. As a blanket strategist, Garrett goes above and above the call of duty, providing insightful analysis on Blanketsburg's fort defense and expansion.

11. Craig Pelton | The Dean

The Dean is in charge of upholding discipline and making decisions that affect all of the students at Greendale Community College. As hostilities get more intense and threaten to interfere with the college's regular operations, the dean gets involved in the fort battle. As Dean, this person can decide on matters that impact all of the students, such as settling disputes and enforcing rules. They can uphold peace, resolve conflicts, and look out for the welfare of the campus population, however, many actions that they take might not be in the best interest of the student body.

12. Robert Laybourne | Vice Dean (Instigator)

Vice Dean Laybourne plays the role of an external influencer, using his connections and influence to manipulate the leaders of Pillowtown and Blanketsburg. Laybourne sees Abed and Troy's conflict and uses their weaknesses to manipulate them and further the conflict between the opposing sides. As an external influencer, Laybourne has the power to manipulate the perceptions and decisions of the fort leaders. His capabilities include strategic manipulation, exploiting vulnerabilities, and steering the conflict in a direction that aligns with his interests.

13. Neil | Neutral Observer

Neil assumes the position of a spectator, offering a neutral analysis of the disputes between Blanketsburg and Pillowtown. Neil, who is well known in the study group for being quiet and perceptive, plays a supporting but crucial role in recording and comprehending the fort dispute. Neil has the authority to remain impartial and watch the events without taking a side in the Pillowtown vs. Blanketsburg dispute because he doesn't have great interaction skills with others. His skills include recording occurrences, offering objective opinions, and maybe swaying others with his uncertainty.

14. Alex Osbourne (Star Burns) | Fort Defender

As a fort defender, Star Burns actively keeps one of the forts safe from impending destruction. Star Burns takes up arms in the battle to protect the fort he has selected, siding with either Blanketsburg or Pillowtown. Star Burns can actively participate in a fort's defense as a fort defender by using tactics to thwart attacks and sabotage. His skills include building forts, developing strategies for fort defense, and having immense strength. The use of Star Burns' abilities is restricted to fort defense and active participation in conflicts. His powers center on strategic defense and construction and his influence is limited to the defense and strategy of the selected fort.

15. Guinness World Record Official | Official Territorial Judge

The person in charge of identifying and validating world records is known as the Guinness World Record Official. The representative shows up at Greendale Community College to evaluate and maybe declare the largest blanket fort for a world record. This person, as the Guinness World Record Official, has the authority to accept or deny Pillowtown and Blanketsburg's claims. They can judge the forts' dimensions and expansion along with violations and make sure the competition is fair. Any sort of attack or violence towards either side can sway his perception of giving the award to either side.

16. The Janitor | Campus Limiter/Observer

The Janitor watches the Pillowtown vs. Blanketsburg fight unfold with considerable interest, assuming the position of a campus observer. The Janitor, a strange but perceptive man, has seen the tensions and conflicts around Greendale Community College, giving him a unique viewpoint on the dispute. The Janitor can watch and possibly even affect events occurring behind the scenes as the campus observer along with limiting certain areas for "renovations" or a "deep cleaning."

17. Lunch Lady | Culinary Peacemaker

The Lunch Lady tries to reduce tensions and build bridges between Pillowtown and Blanketsburg through cuisine. The Lunch Lady, who is well known for her hearty and delectable meals, plays a crucial role in the conflict by providing a strategy for promoting harmony through her delectable foods. The Lunch Lady's kitchen is off limits and her anger gets the better of her when she sees others lurking around her area during closed hours. Her skills include developing common areas for all factions, appealing to emotions through food, and having a safe and secret area within her kitchen.

18. The Physics Teacher | Scientific Strategist

The Physics Teacher plays the role of a scientific strategist, advising Pillowtown or Blanketsburg on conflicting matters and developing dangerous and potentially destructive weapons. The Physics Teacher, who is well known for their physics knowledge, has taken no side but is swayed easily based on others' conceptual knowledge that is similar to his own. Using the laws of physics can improve the fort's overall efficiency, defense mechanisms, and structural integrity but can do quite the opposite as well by developing many deadly and constructive weapons for certain factions. The Physics Teacher's favorite formula is "Force = Mass x Acceleration."

19. The Math Teacher | Egotistical Teacher

The math teacher analyzes and forecasts the results of conflict situations between Pillowtown and Blanketsburg using mathematical concepts and predicts certain outcomes. The Math Teacher, who is renowned for their ability to reason logically and analytically, works against other teachers to remain supreme and as the best teacher. His hatred for other teachers and faculty members for not aligning with his mathematical methods drives his goal of working with students to take down teachers of other sides.

20. The English Teacher | Communications Expert

As a communication specialist, the English teacher mediates disputes, closes gaps, and fosters understanding between Blanketsburg and Pillowtown through language. The English teacher, who is well known for their skill in language arts, plays a critical role in promoting clear communication and clearing up misconceptions between the two sides. Though skilled in communication, the English teacher also acts as the school's counselor, giving feedback and swaying the opinions of members of each side when needed, but also for her benefit.

21. The History Teacher | Record Keeper

The history teacher offers background information and analysis on various conflicts, such as the rivalry between Pillowtown and Blanketsburg. The History Teacher, who is well known for their expertise in historical events, proves to be efficient when finding the cause and effect of certain riots. The history teacher's development of a machine to keep track of all school events can be used to wipe the memory of certain individuals with radio waves, causing them to be forgetful of their actions and creating a clean and fresh start.