

1. Stéphane Dujarric | Spokesperson for the Secretary-General:

Stéphane Dujarric, the Spokesperson for the Secretary-General at the United Nations, communicates key messages globally, utilizing a background in journalism and international affairs. His role involves addressing media inquiries, conducting press briefings, and fostering organizational transparency. In parallel, the Under-Secretary-General for Political Affairs, John Rodriguez, advises on political matters, coordinates UN responses to crises, and engages with member states on diplomatic initiatives, playing a crucial role in maintaining global stability. Dujarric and Rodriguez report to the General Assembly, with Dujarric focusing on public relations and media communications. At the same time, Rodriguez acts as a vital link between the Secretariat and the General Assembly, influencing global diplomatic strategies within the Board of Directors. Their collective relevance spans government sectors dealing with international relations, conflict resolution, and peacekeeping within the BOD.

2. Fatoumata Ndiaye | Under-Secretary-General for Internal Oversight Services:

As the UN's Under-Secretary-General for Internal Oversight Services, Ndiaye maintains organizational integrity through auditing and investigations. She ensures ethical standards are upheld, addressing irregularities and promoting accountability and transparency in UN operations. Collaborating across departments, Ndiaye reports directly to the Secretary-General and the General Assembly, reinforcing the UN's commitment to ethical conduct and continuous improvement. In tandem, Miguel de Serpa Soares, the Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, contributes significantly to the Board of Directors, shaping strategies in legal matters and policy development. Reporting to the Secretary-General, their collaboration enhances the board's overall effectiveness, ensuring a comprehensive approach to the UN's global impact, focusing on legal and policy considerations.

3. Miguel de Serpa Soares | Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs:

Miguel de Serpa Soares, the UN's Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, shapes legal strategies and policies, reporting to the Secretary-General and contributing to the Board of Directors to carefully consider legal aspects aligned with the UN's global mission. Concurrently, Fatoumata Ndiaye, the Under-Secretary-General for Internal Oversight Services, ensures organizational integrity by conducting audits and investigations. Reporting to both the Secretary-General and the General Assembly, Ndiaye collaborates across departments to uphold ethical standards, address irregularities, and enhance accountability and transparency within UN operations. These roles synergize to reinforce the UN's commitment to ethical conduct and continuous improvement.

4. Rosemary A. DiCarlo | Under-Secretary-General for Political and Peacebuilding Affairs:

Rosemary A. DiCarlo serves as the UN's Under-Secretary-General for Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, playing a crucial role in shaping policies and strategies related to political affairs and peacebuilding. Reporting to the Secretary-General, she contributes to the Board of Directors, focusing on aspects aligned with the UN's global mission in political and peace-related matters. DiCarlo's position is pivotal in enhancing the organization's effectiveness by addressing critical issues, fostering diplomatic relations, and promoting global peace. In addition, she collaborates with other UN departments to ensure comprehensive consideration of political implications in the pursuit of sustainable peace. Within the company hierarchy, DiCarlo holds a key position, reporting to high-level officials and dealing with diverse sectors of government, emphasizing her significance in advancing the UN's mission.

5. Izumi Nakamitsu | Undersecretary General for Disarmament Affairs:

Izumi Nakamitsu, the UN's Under-Secretary-General for Disarmament Affairs, leads global disarmament efforts, shaping policies to curb weapon proliferation. With expertise in disarmament and international security, she maintains the disarmament division's structure, overseeing resolution implementation for a world free from mass destruction threats. Nakamitsu collaborates across the UN, coordinating disarmament initiatives and engaging with government sectors, policymakers, and industries. Reporting to high-level officials, she navigates disarmament challenges, advancing the UN's mission for international peace. As a UN Board of Directors (BOD) member, Nakamitsu advises on disarmament matters, aligning UN goals within broader decision-making processes. Her BOD role enhances organizational governance and fosters collaboration between UN facets.

6. Jean-Pierre Lacroix | Under-Secretary-General for Peace Operations:

Jean-Pierre Lacroix, the Under-Secretary-General for Peace Operations, manages global peacekeeping missions with a diplomatic background. He coordinates efforts, ensures resolution implementation, and addresses challenges faced by peacekeepers. Lacroix collaborates across the UN, contributing to international peace and security, and reports to top officials. His BOD role enhances UN peacekeeping strategy alignment within broader decision-making. On the UN BOD, Lacroix provides strategic insights into peacekeeping, influencing decision-making and reinforcing coordination between peacekeeping initiatives and broader UN objectives.

7. Martin Griffiths | Under-Secretary-General for Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs:

Martin Griffiths, as Under-Secretary-General for Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, oversees global humanitarian efforts, utilizing diplomacy and conflict resolution expertise. He streamlines response strategies, mobilizes resources, and addresses urgent crisis needs. Griffiths collaborates across departments, reporting to high-ranking officials and playing a pivotal role in fostering international cooperation. Griffiths contributes to decision-making on humanitarian initiatives within the UN BOD, ensuring alignment with broader UN goals and reinforcing the integration of humanitarian efforts.

8. Li Junhua | Under-Secretary-General for Economic and Social Affairs:

Li Junhua, Under-Secretary-General for Economic and Social Affairs, shapes global economic and social development policies. With a focus on sustainable development goals, he collaborates with diverse UN departments, engaging with government sectors, policymakers, and industries. Reporting to top officials, Li works on innovative solutions for global well-being, contributing to the UN's mission for a more equitable world. Li Junhua's role on the UN BOD integrates economic and social considerations into broader governance, contributing valuable insights to global economic policies and initiatives.

9. Melissa Fleming | Under-Secretary-General for Global Communications:

Melissa Fleming, the UN's Under-Secretary-General for Global Communications, holds a key position in shaping communication strategies. With a focus on global outreach, Fleming collaborates across UN departments, engaging with governments and industries. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role influences international perceptions, contributing to the UN's overarching mission. As a member of the UN Board of Directors (BOD), Fleming contributes to communication-related decision-making, aligning strategies with broader organizational goals.

10. Gilles Michaud | Under-Secretary-General for Safety and Security

Gilles Michaud, Under-Secretary-General for Safety and Security, plays a critical role in coordinating safety measures globally. With a background in security, Michaud collaborates across UN departments, engaging with governments and industries to ensure the organization's safety protocols. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is instrumental in safeguarding UN operations worldwide. As a UN BOD member, Michaud enhances safety and security considerations within broader organizational governance, influencing decision-making on safety-related initiatives.

11. Catherine Pollard | Under-Secretary-General for Management Strategy, Policy, and Compliance

Catherine Pollard, Under-Secretary-General for Management Strategy, Policy, and Compliance, holds a crucial position in shaping UN policies. With a focus on strategy and compliance, Pollard collaborates across UN departments, engaging with governments and industries. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role influences organizational efficiency, contributing to the UN's overall effectiveness. As a UN BOD member, Pollard contributes to decision-making on management-related policies, ensuring alignment with broader UN goals.

12. Cristina Duarte | Under-Secretary-General and Special Advisor on Africa

Cristina Duarte, Under-Secretary-General and Special Advisor on Africa, plays a key role in advising on African matters. With a focus on regional strategies, Duarte collaborates across UN departments, engaging with governments and industries. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is instrumental in addressing Africa-specific challenges, contributing to the UN's commitment to the continent. As a UN BOD member, Duarte enhances Africa-focused considerations within broader organizational governance, influencing decision-making on initiatives related to the continent.

13. Alayne Frankson-Wallace | Executive Director of the Office of Administration of Justice

Alayne Frankson-Wallace, as the Executive Director of the Office of Administration of Justice, oversees judicial matters within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to ensure the organization's adherence to legal standards. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is pivotal in upholding justice and compliance within the UN. As a member of the UN Board of Directors (BOD), Frankson-Wallace contributes to decision-making on legal and judicial matters, aligning strategies with broader organizational goals.

14. Annika Savill | Executive Head of the United Nations Democracy Fund

Annika Savill, as the Executive Head of the United Nations Democracy Fund, oversees initiatives promoting democracy globally. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to advance democratic values. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is crucial in supporting democratic principles within the UN. As a UN BOD member, Savill contributes to decision-making on democracy-related initiatives, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

15. Elia Armstrong | Director of the Ethics Office

Elia Armstrong, as the Director of the Ethics Office, holds a key role in overseeing ethical considerations within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to ensure ethical standards are maintained. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is instrumental in upholding ethical integrity within the UN. As a UN BOD member, Armstrong contributes to decision-making on ethical matters, aligning strategies with broader organizational goals.

16. Claudia Banz | Director of the Security Council Affairs Division

Claudia Banz, as the Director of the Security Council Affairs Division, plays a crucial role in managing affairs related to the UN Security Council. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to address security challenges. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is pivotal in coordinating Security Council-related matters within the UN. As a UN BOD member, Banz contributes to decision-making on security-related initiatives, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

17. John Wilmoth | Director of the Division for Inclusive Social Development

John Wilmoth, as the Director of the Division for Inclusive Social Development, focuses on shaping policies to promote social inclusion globally. Collaborating across UN departments, he engages with governments and industries to address social challenges. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is crucial in advancing social development within the UN. As a UN BOD member, Wilmoth contributes to decision-making on inclusive social development, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

18. David K. Nanopoulos | Chief of the Treaty Section

David K. Nanopoulos, as the Chief of the Treaty Section, holds a key position in managing treaty-related matters within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, he engages with governments and industries to address treaty-related challenges. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is instrumental in upholding the integrity of international treaties within the UN. As a UN BOD member, Nanopoulos contributes to decision-making on treaty-related matters, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

19. Josiane Ambiehl | Chief of the Decolonization Unit

Josiane Ambiehl, as the Chief of the Decolonization Unit, plays a pivotal role in managing matters related to decolonization within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to address challenges related to decolonization. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is instrumental in advancing the UN's commitment to decolonization. As a UN BOD member, Ambiehl contributes to decision-making on decolonization matters, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

20. Bernardo Mariano Jr. | Chief Information Technology Officer

Bernardo Mariano Jr., as the Chief Information Technology Officer, oversees technology-related matters within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, he engages with governments and industries to address information technology challenges. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is crucial in advancing the UN's technological capabilities. As a UN BOD member, Mariano Jr. contributes to decision-making on technology-related matters, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

21. Rabab Fatima | High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries, and Small Island Developing States

Rabab Fatima, as the High Representative for Landlocked Developing Countries, and Small Island Developing States, focuses on advancing the interests of these regions within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to address the unique challenges faced by these states. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is pivotal in promoting the development and well-being of these regions within the UN. As a UN BOD member, Fatima contributes to decision-making on matters related to the least developed countries, landlocked developing countries, and small island developing states, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

22. Jayathma Wickramanayake | Envoy on Youth

Jayathma Wickramanayake, as the Envoy on Youth, focuses on representing the interests of the youth within the UN. Collaborating across UN departments, she engages with governments and industries to address challenges faced by the youth globally. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is instrumental in advancing the UN's commitment to youth empowerment. As a UN BOD member, Wickramanayake contributes to decision-making on matters related to youth empowerment, ensuring alignment with broader organizational goals.

23. Sonia Elliott | Secretary of the First Committee

Sonia Elliott serves as the Secretary of the First Committee, playing a crucial role in managing affairs related to disarmament and international security within the UN. With a background in international relations, Elliott brings extensive expertise to her position, focusing on coordinating efforts to address disarmament challenges and promote arms control. As a key member of the UN Secretariat, she collaborates with various departments and offices to ensure the effective implementation of resolutions related to disarmament. Reporting to high-ranking officials, Elliott holds a significant position within the organization's hierarchy, engaging with government sectors, policymakers, and relevant industries. Additionally, in her role on the Board of Directors (BOD), she contributes valuable insights into disarmament issues, aligning the organization's strategies with global security priorities.

24. Emer Herity | Secretary of the Second Committee

Emer Herity, as the Secretary of the Second Committee, oversees matters related to economic and financial issues within the UN. Herity, with a background in economics, plays a pivotal role in shaping policies and initiatives to advance global economic development. Her primary responsibilities include coordinating efforts to address economic challenges, promoting sustainable development goals, and fostering international collaboration on critical economic issues. Within the UN Secretariat, Herity collaborates with various departments and offices to drive economic progress worldwide. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is instrumental in advancing the UN's mission to create a more equitable and sustainable world through economic development. As a member of the BOD, Herity provides expertise on economic matters, contributing to strategic decisions that align with global economic priorities.

25. Ziad Mahmassani | Secretary of the Third Committee

Ziad Mahmassani holds the position of Secretary of the Third Committee, overseeing social, humanitarian, and cultural issues within the UN. With a background in international relations, Mahmassani plays a central role in formulating policies and strategies to address global social challenges. His responsibilities include coordinating efforts to promote social development, human rights, and international cooperation on cultural matters. Within the UN Secretariat, Mahmassani collaborates with various departments and offices to advance social progress worldwide. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is crucial in fostering a world that upholds human rights and cultural diversity. As a BOD member, Mahmassani contributes insights into social and humanitarian issues, guiding strategic decisions that align with global priorities.

26. Jullyette Ukabiala | Secretary of the Fourth Committee

Jullyette Ukabiala serves as the Secretary of the Fourth Committee, overseeing matters related to special political and decolonization issues within the UN. With a background in international relations, Ukabiala plays a pivotal role in managing affairs related to peacekeeping operations and decolonization efforts. Her responsibilities include coordinating efforts to address challenges in these areas and fostering international cooperation. Within the UN Secretariat, Ukabiala collaborates with various departments and offices to ensure the effective implementation of resolutions related to special political issues. Reporting to high-ranking officials, her role is instrumental in advancing the UN's mission of maintaining international peace and security. As a BOD member, Ukabiala provides valuable perspectives on peacekeeping and decolonization, influencing strategic decisions aligned with global stability.

27. Lionelito Berridge | Secretary of the Fifth Committee

Lionelito Berridge holds the position of Secretary of the Fifth Committee, overseeing matters related to administrative and budgetary issues within the UN. With a background in administrative and financial management, Berridge plays a central role in formulating policies and strategies to address global administrative challenges. His responsibilities include coordinating efforts to manage the UN's budget and ensure efficient administrative operations. Within the UN Secretariat, Berridge collaborates with various departments and offices to drive administrative and financial progress worldwide. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is crucial in maintaining the organization's financial integrity and supporting its overall mission. As a BOD member, Berridge contributes financial and administrative expertise, guiding strategic decisions aligned with the organization's fiscal health.

28. Huw Llewellyn | Secretary of the Sixth Committee

Huw Llewellyn serves as the Secretary of the Sixth Committee, overseeing matters related to legal issues within the UN. With a background in international law, Llewellyn plays a pivotal role in managing legal affairs and formulating policies to address global legal challenges. He coordinates efforts to uphold international law, promote the rule of law, and foster international legal cooperation. Within the UN Secretariat, Llewellyn collaborates with various departments and offices to ensure the effective implementation of legal resolutions. Reporting to high-ranking officials, his role is instrumental in advancing the UN's mission to uphold legal standards and maintain international peace and security. As a BOD member, Llewellyn contributes legal expertise, providing valuable insights into legal matters that influence strategic decisions aligned with the organization's mission.